How you're feeling better. Maureen Barbour Smallcombe of Moosic, formerly of Jermy, a patient at Carbondale General ... Ditto to Donna Bruno, R.D. Jermy, who had surgery at the Mid-Valley ... Johanna (Joanne) Langman, Jermy, beatrice, recently completed a five-day seminar at Rock Haven State College, offered by the Pennsylvania Handicapped Association, looking up on all the new trends in hairstyling for the fall and winter ... Sorry we missed the Royal Wedding window display put together by Cathy's girls at the Nettie Wabbel Shopper on North Church, surely would have done a feature story on it, old chap ... Thanks to Dorothy Ann Martin of Jermy for the thank you ... I wasn't near-see a tall ... Good luck and best wishes to John Lawless, Jr., Roger St., now in basic training with the National Guard in Georgia ... Sorry to hear Jerry Paul, former Carbondale Times Valley bureau chief, has been ailing ... Tall, dark and handsome Ron Griffiths visiting his folks in Jermy from his new place in Virginia, where he's working in the electronics field. Ron's a graduate of Williamsport Technical Institute ... The grapevine has it that Mary Hockaday Armour and young son are on an extended visit with her dad, Hank, Lincoln Avenue in Jermy ... while hubby Jim is on a tour of duty in the service.

But good wishes and luck in his bucket career to Mason East, former Coal Company Theatre STAR, who departs Aug. 26 for Ithaca College and the BIG TIME ... Retired airlines pilot Jack Race, Crystal Lake, was the featured speaker at a recent service at St. James Episcopal (summer) Church, Dundaff ... Roger Hayden provided the music and layman Kenny Booth read the service. Sorry we missed it. Jack was undoubtedly one of our most interesting interviewees (The other was John Malone) ex FBI officer, Roger, by the way, tuned out piano recently, while we were out and when he presented us with the bill, he said casually, "Oh, your paper boy was here and I paid him!" He plays grand piano, too ... It really wiped us out to hear Paul Cerra had dissolved Coal Company Theatre, tried to reach him, but to no avail. What a talented group he had, and how hard he worked! We have memories which don't cost a thing, do they? of many, many happy hours across the footlights reviewing CCA productions, and with well to the new thespian group now forming in Carbondale.

Reviewing bids

Bids for the reconstruction of Gordon Avenue in Carbondale are now under review by the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation's (PennDOT) solicitor in Harrisburg.

Joseph Kohut, city community development director, told the Mirror that the bids were opened Thursday, Aug. 13, in PennDOT's Harrisburg office.

The project is being funded by the community development office.

Site improvement okayed

Last Monday night Carbondale city council approved a transfer of community development funds from home rehabilitation to site improvements.

By cooperating with the area's council of governments (COG), the City of Carbondale realized a savings of $117 a ton when it bought rock salt last year.

This year the city administration won council's approval to go ahead and again cooperate with the COG.

Managing Director Judge told the Mirror that because the savings were so great last

Replacing sewer lines

This summer the city's street department crews have been replacing sewer lines.

Last week, the Mirror saw, the crews replaced a sewer line on Crabtree Avenue.

More money coming

Because of the new way of charging the gasoline tax, the city could come up with nearly double its usual annual allotment under the Liquid Fuels Program.

This means, Judge said, that the city should receive more than $100,000 in its allocation.

Fire and police weekly report

Incidents

Thursday, Aug. 20

Police are investigating a report of a vehicle burglary which occurred on S. Main Street the night before.

A report at headquarters noted that Jim Race, 1715 S. Main St., Carbondale, reported that his truck was burglarized while it was parked at his home. Entry was gained by breaking a vent window on the driver's side.

Taken in the burglary were $75 worth of clothes, assorted tools and a $225 cash.

The burglary was reported to Sgt. Albert Mazza.

The investigation is continuing.

At 10 p.m., Linda Spangenberg, 4 Foster Place, Carbondale, complained to police that vandals broke a window on the side porch door of her home with a pair. Value of the window was set at $50. Patrolman Frank Harker investigated.

Friday, Aug. 21

Police cited 20-year-old William A. Strumsky, 124 Maple St., for a 130 m. per hr. for reckless driving and littering following an incident which occurred on S. Main Street.

Police reported that the Jessup man allegedly drove on the sidewalk knocking over several garbage bags and causing the contents to spill into the roadway. Patrolman Walter Connor issued the citations.

Police advised a Carbondale man to see a magistrate after he was allegedly attacked in the city bar on S. Main Street.

William Adams, Summit Place, Carbondale, told police that a man struck him while he was walking on S. Main Street. He said he was also struck by some other men as well and contends he was eventually knocked out. Adams filed his complaint at 2 a.m. with Patrolman Robert Leonard.

The man was treated for injuries at the emergency room of St. Joseph's Hospital, Carbondale.

Saturday, Aug. 22

At 10 p.m., Janet Woodbridge, 42 Havanna St., Carbondale, told Patrolman Edward Smith that she was assaulted while at a party at 274 Park St., Carbondale. A man, she claimed, hit her over the head with a glass at the party. The man's identity was given to the police and the investigation is continuing.

Sunday, Aug. 23

Carbondale police cited 21-year-old Russell Scallio, 84 Park St., for a 130 m. per hr. for reckless driving and littering following an incident which occurred on S. Main Street.

Police reported that the car was allegedly involved in a fight with another man in the Big Chief Market parking lot on N. Main St.

Police were summoned to the parking lot at 7 p.m. where they reportedly found Scallio on the ground fighting with Joseph C. Padgug, 14 Brennan Court, Carbondale. Both men were taken to headquarters where they were questioned and later released, but Padgug was not cited, issuing the citation was Patrolman Frank Harker.

At 3:15 a.m., Patrolman Walter Connor reported that he was called to South Main Street to disperse some youths. He found that a parking meter and pipe had been removed from the sidewalk.

Police towed a car owned by Debbie Murphy, 26 Belmont St., Carbondale. They noted in their report that the car was blocking the fire driveway at the entrance to the Mitchell House Company.

Tuesday, Aug. 18

Police reported that at 10:50 a.m., a car operated by Carol Ann Levine, 34 Dante Ave., Carbondale, collided with a car operated by Rita Ann Daniels, 102 Wayne St., Carbondale, on N. Main Street. There were no injuries. Patrolman Joseph Mast investigated.

A city youth engaged in injuries after the car was driving struck a pole on Fox Street at 11:25 p.m.

Police identified the youth as Steven A. Kovalevski, 65 Hospital St., Carbondale. He was traveling on Fox Street when he said he was forced off the road into the pole by a car traveling in the opposite direction.

Patrolman Robert Leonard investigated.

Friday, Aug. 21

A 16-year-old juvenile was cited by police for driving a car without a license after he car collided with another driver by Mary Ellen Scallio, 120 Birket St., Carbondale, the evening before.

The collision occurred at Main Street and Seventh Avenue at 11:30 p.m. There were no injuries. Patrolman Robert Leonard investigated the accident and filed the charge at the magistrate's office.

Police are investigating a hit-and-run which was reported to them at 9 p.m. by Leon Winters, 8 High St.

Police hit car was parked in the parking lot at the Ben-Mar Restaurant on N. Main Street when it was struck by an unknown vehicle.

Patrolman Robert Leonard conducted the initial investigation.

A Lennoxville man was injured when his motorcycle collided with a car on Fallbrook Street at Sago Avenue at 2:30 p.m.

Taken to Carbondale General Hospital in the Cottage House ambulance was Wayne W. Williams, 260 Royal Road, Lennoxville. He suffered back, arm and leg injuries as a result of the mishap.

Police said his bike struck a car operated by Kathy Aubrey, 7 Pearl St., Carbondale. She was not injured. According to the report, Williams was traveling west on Fallbrook when he collided with the Aubrey car which was traveling south on Sago. Miss Aubrey told police she was edging out into the intersection when the two collided.

Patrolman Walter DePot investigated.

At 8:25 p.m., a car driven by John J. Borosky, Jr., 54 Oswego St., Simpson, collided with a car operated by Matthew Homiak, 43 Squeakham St., Forest City, on North Main Street near Salem Avenue.

There were no injuries. Sgt. Jay McDonald investigated.

Police cited a Taylor-Old Forge resident for driving under the influence after he was driving west on Dundaff Street at 11:53 p.m.

Police said that Robert L. Ferrel, 111 Donny Drive, Taylor-Old Forge, was traveling south on Dundaff Street when he car climbed the sidewalk and hit the pole, owned by Bell Telephone. Patrolman Walter Connor, who issued the citation, reported that Ferrel refused to take a breathalyzer test.

Encore Theatre is name chosen

The Encore Theatre was the name chosen by interested local citizens at a meeting Thursday night, for the new theatre group in Carbondale (see last week's Mirror).

While many names were submitted by those in attendance, The Encore Theatre was the choice of the majority because of its theatrical connotation and originality. Also agreed upon was a fee of $3 for anyone wishing to join the group. The money will be used for the group's first production.

Paul members will be involved in the election of officers.

On Tuesday, Sept. 1, the membership will elect officers — president, vice president, recording secretary, correspondence secretary, and treasurer. All paid members will be able to nominate and vote.

The officers elected will then select a board of directors and an advisory board to be made up from local business, professional, and civic leaders.

A fundraising committee was also established and plans are underway for a car wash, bake sale, and rummage sale.

The feasibility of selecting a resident director was also discussed and met with the approval of all in attendance.

By laws will be written by the officers and members to be presented to the membership for approval.

Anyone interested in joining the group can call Mrs. Betty Opalka, 282-1869.

Membership fees can be paid between now and Sept. 1 for those wishing to participate in the election of officers.
